Walker-Drygas ticket announces initial regional campaign co-chairs

Anchorage, Alaska – Today, candidates for governor and lieutenant governor Bill Walker and Heidi Drygas announced their initial regional co-chairs.

“Since we announced our campaign last month, the response from Alaskans has been overwhelmingly positive,” said Bill Walker. “We are honored to have support from such a broad spectrum of residents representing diverse cross-sections of our state. What we all have in common is that we’re committed to working together to do what’s best for Alaska.”

“Our initial campaign co-chairs represent what our administration will look like - diverse, hardworking Alaskans who are passionate about our state,” said Heidi Drygas. “We’re grateful for their support, and we look forward to growing this team with other like-minded individuals who share our goal of rebuilding Alaska.”
